

EDES 100 : Design Thinking I

Introduces students to design thinking, a problem-solving methodology used to arrive at innovative solutions that address complex problems. Builds an understanding of research methods to provide context for design decisions, with a focus on problem identification, information gathering, analysis, and guest experience.

Credits 3

Studio Hours 0

Lecture Hours 3

Prerequisites

none.