

EDES 221 : Environmental Wayfinding

Introduction to the concepts, techniques and design principles used in physical orientation and movement through space. Considerations relating to health, safety, and accessibility will be explored. Understanding, developing and applying wayfinding systems including environmental graphics.

Credits 3

Studio Hours 6

Lecture Hours 0

Prerequisites

MEDA 111 or DSNA 110.