

FILM 421 : Advanced Film Seminar

This is a seminar course designed to address advanced topics in filmmaking and ongoing thesis production workshops. Workshops will be taught by visiting artist/filmmakers. The seminar will provide a focused learning experience designed to enhance thesis productions conceptually, artistically and technically. Students will use a colloquium as a forum for discussing important digital filmmaking issues for the future of aspiring filmmakers.

Credits 3

Studio Hours 6

Lecture Hours 0

Prerequisites

Open to Film majors only.