

HIST 271 : History Documentaries

Examines a range of history documentaries as vehicles for interpreting and communicating history, applying history to contemporary issues, and investigating historical mysteries; evaluates examples of the history documentary genre for effectiveness in engaging audiences educationally and for entertainment purposes.

Credits 3

Studio Hours 0

Lecture Hours 3

Prerequisites

None.