

LIBA 111 : Contemporary Design Culture

Survey of contemporary design culture. Explores how the interplay of artists, designers, and thinkers with technological and economic forces has created the look and feel of the objects and practices that continue to shape our culture today. Combines study of pop culture and recent design history with an investigation of philosophical, sociological, psychological, and technological issues.

Credits 3

Studio Hours 0

Lecture Hours 3

Prerequisites

None.