

SBSC 203 : Introduction to Gender & Sexuality Studies

Introduces major themes in gender and sexuality studies; examines key theoretical concepts (e.g., gender sexuality, performativity, intersectionality, feminisms, identity-based oppression and privilege, social construction, queering categories of difference); critically examines, through readings, multimedia, and class discussion, representations of gender and sexuality in popular culture.

Credits 3

Studio Hours 0

Lecture Hours 3

Prerequisites

None.