SBSC 300 : Sociology of Fashion

Examines fashion as a site of struggle for self-definition, gender coding, and masquerade; synthesizes key debates and theories in the critical study of fashion; discovers the evolution of fashion consumption, and examines the complete cycle of the fashion industry, including digital fashion and image curation.
Credits 3
Studio Hours 0

Lecture Hours 3
Prerequisites
None.