

VIRT 210 : Visual Scripting

Introduction to visual programming. Artists will develop fundamental object-oriented programming techniques and develop the ability to create interactive behavior using graphical nodes instead of typing code. Topics include interpolated animation, basic vector mathematics, and interface design.

Credits 3

Studio Hours 6

Lecture Hours 0

Prerequisites

VIRT 100, MEDA 123C or 123D, or with instructor approval.