

Campus Communication Policy

Students are required to read the Student Handbook and are responsible for knowing the College's academic policies and procedures. Students are required to keep current with College communications by regularly checking the campus portal, their campus e-mail, and their campus mailbox and to be aware of the information presented.