

President's List

At the end of each semester, the President of Ringling College recognizes students with a semester average of 3.7 or better, and “President’s List” is posted on their transcripts for that semester.