

ARTH 325 : Topics of Film History

Introduces students to standard approaches for analyzing cinema. These approaches not only unveil the formal and narrative techniques of film as an art form but also reveal how film works as a storytelling medium and cultural barometer. Exact topics determined on per semester basis.

Credits 3

Studio Hours 0

Lecture Hours 3

Prerequisites

None.