

ARTH 330 : History of Architecture: Up to 1400

Introduces the major periods and styles of architecture around the world from the beginnings of architectural production to the year 1400; each lecture attempts to answer the question: "Why do the buildings look like that?" Examines the technological, aesthetic, political and social forces shaping the built environment.

Credits 3

Studio Hours 0

Lecture Hours 3

Prerequisite Courses

ARTH 111