

ARTH 365 : History of Modern Architecture

Study of recent architectural history from the Industrial Revolution to the present. Introduces significant works of modern architectural design and their architects. Examines the development of modern architecture within the framework of: architectural theory and criticism; advances in building technologies; stylistic evolution; changes in architectural practice. Considers political, environmental, and mobility issues where relevant.

Credits 3

Studio Hours 0

Lecture Hours 3

Prerequisite Courses

ARTH 111