

ARTH 385 : Islamic Art and Culture

Explores the visual arts of Islamic cultures across the globe. Considers Islamic art within the context of both traditional and modern Islamic cultures. Topics include: relationship of religion and art; importance of the written word; aesthetics of manuscript illuminations; architectural types; mathematical basis of Islamic design.

Credits 3

Studio Hours 0

Lecture Hours 3

Prerequisite Courses

ARTH 111